Application Checklist

You will need the following information/documents to complete your student's online application:

- Your child's birth certificate issued by a state or county – not hospital.
- Proof of West Virginia residency demonstrated by one of the following criteria that matches the physical address used on the application:
  - Current tax records;
  - Proof of West Virginia home ownership, such as a mortgage document or homeowner's insurance;
  - A valid West Virginia vehicle registration card;
  - A valid West Virginia driver's license or issued identification when presented with a second form of accepted proof of residency;
  - Current public assistance through the West Virginia Department of Health & Human Resources;
  - Two West Virginia utility bills no more than 60 days old from two different companies, not including termination notices. The following are considered utilities: water, gas, electric, telephone, cellular phone, garbage, internet and cable; or
  - Optional Plaid residency verification: Plaid is a residency verification and authentication process in lieu of the manual submission of proof of residency documentation from the list above. Account holders have the option to scan a picture of their valid driver's license or other state-issued verification card. Plaid authenticates the identification document using various databases available to confirm residency of the Account Holder.
- Your child's grade level for the year for which you are applying for the scholarship.
- Your child's WVEIS ID# assigned by a West Virginia public school. This can be found on your child's report card or school lunch bill. If you are not sure of your child's WVEIS ID# or you do not believe they already have one, please complete the WVEIS ID# Request Form to request one from your local county board of education. Parents can locate the form on our website at hopescholarshipwv.gov.

Once a student's application is found eligible, the student must submit a Notice of Intent (NOI) to their local county board of education. More information about the NOI process can be found at hopescholarshipwv.gov.
